

ALLIES INFORMED OF MEASURES THAT FRANCE WILL TAKE

French Government Observes Diplomatic Etiquette

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, Jan. 9.—Reports from Germany and elsewhere show a tendency to get in advance the facts regarding France's proposed occupation of the Ruhr. Within the bounds of its determination to act with or without the acquiescence of England, the French government continues to observe diplomatic etiquette and usage.

The French ambassador tonight communicated confidentially to the British government as a matter of courtesy the measures which France intends to take in the Ruhr district consequent upon Germany's default in timber and coal deliveries. These plans naturally will not be disclosed in London unless the French government should authorize disclosure. The British government is proceeding quietly to discuss and be prepared for all eventualities.

A cabinet meeting has been summoned for Thursday, indicating that the government takes the situation seriously. Lord Derby, secretary of war, is leaving Cannes tonight to attend the council, and the Earl of Cavan, chief of staff this evening announced the prime minister had requested him to postpone his honeymoon trip, he having just been married.

The French are moving large bodies of troops into positions of readiness for their advance, but the belief is held in Cologne, according to advices from that city that actual entry of the Ruhr is not likely before January 15, the date on which the German reparations payment of 500,000,000 gold marks is due.

There will be many difficult points arising with regard to the movement of troops thru the British and Belgian zones, and these will require careful local adjustment.

So far as they concern British interests they will be considered by the cabinet on Thursday in a confidential discussion of the French plans. There is likely to be a waiting attitude on the part of both Germany and England until it is seen how the French plans develop.

France is Ready.
Paris, Jan. 9.—France is ready tonight to seize the Ruhr at daybreak. There are many reasons to believe that tomorrow's sun will disclose French airplanes hovering over Essen, while a long string of tanks crawl into the Krupp's home in advance of foot and horse troops. The zero hour has been fixed but until the occupation army marches the time, place, manner and exact objectives are held by the government as military and political secrets.

France today notified England thru the French ambassador at London and the American ambassadors at Paris and Brussels were informed by French and Belgian governments, respectively what France plans to do. The French tonight also are armed with the reparations commission's declaration that Germany is in voluntary default in coal deliveries; so there is no apparent cause for further delay.

M. Maginot, the war minister, has had a final conference with Premier Poincare, assuring him that the army is ready; the technical men, even emergency crews of railroads and telegraphers, in case of strikes in the Ruhr are awaiting orders at Dusseldorf and their military escort is impatient to be off.

General DeGoutte with his staff left Mayence for Dusseldorf just ahead of the last train load of Mayence troops and all will be in Dusseldorf late tonight.

This readiness is no proof that the French have set their advance for Wednesday night. There may be a delay until Thursday that Premier Poincare can give parliament the news while it is still fresh and there are some who think that the premier may wait until he has informed the chamber of his plans so that parliament may by a vote of confidence be responsible for the order to Poch's men—"take Essen."

REQUISITIONS ALL AUTOS AND TRUCKS

DUSSELDORF, Jan. 9.—All passenger automobiles and heavy delivery trucks have been requisitioned by the French government on orders issued by General Simeon. The general with the Ober Burgmaster will inspect and select the best of the automobiles for use by the French.

Persons refusing to hand over their cars will be tried by the French military court.

MANY WITNESSES ALIBI FOR HERRIN RIOT DEFENDANTS

Say Joe Carnaghi and Leva Mann Mile Away from Scene

(By The Associated Press)

MARION, Ill., Jan. 9.—Nineteen witnesses for the defense at the trial of five men charged with murder in connection with the Herrin riots testified today that two of the defendants, Joe Carnaghi and Leva Mann, were at least a mile from the scene of the tragedy.

The defense has announced its intention of seeking to prove alibi for all of the defendants.

Carnaghi's movement were traced step by step by the witnesses from 7 o'clock of the morning of June 21, when six non-union prisoners were marched thru Herrin to a cemetery on the outskirts of the town where they were shot down, until 11 o'clock the same morning when the bodies were brought back to Herrin.

Dr. M. F. Shipman who previously took the stand for the state as an eye witness of the actual shooting at the cemetery testified that the tragedy took place after 9 o'clock. Witnesses for the defense today testified that at that hour Mann was standing in front of a lumber yard at least a mile away from the scene of the shooting.

Dr. Shipman also testified that he saw Carnaghi fire into the bodies of the men as they lay in the road in front of the cemetery.

He said that he was so close that he could have reached out and put his hand on Carnaghi's shoulder at the time and that when a bullet struck Hoffman, one of the victims who died two days later the blood gushed a foot in the air.

Dr. Shipman identified Mann as having given the order to shoot down the six prisoners.

Other witnesses for the prosecution have testified that they saw both Carnaghi and Mann with guns that morning. The defense has announced its intention of seeking to impeach several of these witnesses. A brother-in-law, several neighbors, friends and acquaintances today contradicted testimony given by the witnesses for the state and positively asserted that while the prisoners were being marched thru Herrin to their fate, Carnaghi was bringing a milk pail with water from a neighboring house to his home, was watering his garden, gossiping across a back fence, watching the arrival of a train and visiting a pool room.

IMPERIAL WIZARD SAYS KLAN INNOCENT

(By The Associated Press)

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 9.—Dr. H. W. Evans, imperial wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, declared in a statement tonight that he unhesitatingly stands on the denial of Klan officials in Louisiana that members of the organization had anything to do with the Morehouse parish kidnaping and flogging outrages in which Watt Daniel and Thomas Richards were tortured to death last August.

He attributes reports which he said had been sent thruout the nation to the effect that the Morehouse mob alleged to have killed Daniel and Richards was dressed as klanmen, to efforts of enemies of the Klan to discredit the organization. Lawlessness is as distasteful to klanmen as to law-abiding citizens of any community, imperial wizard declared. He expressed confidence that the Klan as usual will be vindicated both legally and in the minds of all fair minded men.

COBLENZ, Jan. 9.—With the idea of averting possible trouble all of the soldiers of the American forces in Germany except those on night duty must be in barracks before 11 o'clock at night. No passes will be issued to the American troops to points outside the Coblenz area.

The French troops in the American zone are required to be off the streets at 9 o'clock in the evening. Coblenz is quiet altho the populace is perturbed.

FOURTEEN BILLS WERE PRESENTED BY THE SENATE

Ettelson Bill Provides for Five Cent Fare for Chicago

(By The Associated Press)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 9.—Fourteen bills were presented by the senate in its called session at 4 o'clock this afternoon including the Thomas plan transportation measures by Samuel Ettelson, Chicago and a $75,000 appropriation measure to be used by the attorney general in the prosecution of the Williamson county or Herrin mine killings.

Under the Ettelson bills, four in all Chicago would be provided with a five cent surface line fare and in the event of any deficit it would be permitted to levy a tax or determine upon a suitable plan to eliminate the deficit.

Other important matters included the presentation of over 100 recess appointments by Governor Small and seven new ones. These will be discussed in a caucus of a senate Republican confirmation is expected shortly.

In the house session this afternoon the rules committee submitted its program which provided for two rules calling for presentation of the conference committee reports or bills to the members three legislative days before final action and for separate fills for each of the state officers, and not group plan bills as have been presented. The rules remain for discussion before a vote on adoption. They were taken from sections 37 and 39 of the proposed state constitution recently defeated.

A resolution expressing the regrets and providing for an engraved copy to be sent to relatives, of former member Charles Baldwin, Chicago, who died recently was adopted in the house. The house adjourned in respect to the memory of Mr. Baldwin, after his short session.

Changes in Committees

The rules committee suggested the following changes in the number of members of the various committees:

Appropriations from 48 to 49.
Roads and bridges from 29 to 35.
Waterways from 31 to 36.

The transportation bills as introduced by Senator Ettelson are practically repetitions of the same measures presented and defeated in the last session.

Another bill presented to the senate called for a $35,000 appropriation for the state health department to provide serums and antitoxins. Other measures thrown into the hopper included: The re-appropriation of $30,000,000 of the $60,000,000 road fund expended in the last biennium by Senator Meents, a bill to exempt rural mail carriers from paying automobile tax fees by Senator Mills.

A bill to amend the corporation act to meet decision of the supreme court in its recent ruling in excise taxes.

A similar measure has been prepared for presentation in the house.

Senator Jewell offers a bill to amend the mothers' pension act by raising the ages of children to be assisted from 14 to 16 years.

Among the new appointments sent to the senate by the governor for confirmation, are:

Public administrator of Cook county, Gregory T. VanMeter, to succeed himself; William M. Scanlon, to be a member of the industrial commission, vice Jas. A. Culp, resigned.

The senate committee on committees met tonight.

BUD JOHNSON DIES OF PNEUMONIA

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Albert L. "Bud" Johnson, a nephew of Tom L. Johnson, Cleveland's former traction reform mayor who in 1921 started society by marrying Peggy Marsh, English dancer, died today of pneumonia.

Attending physicians said death was hastened by a wound received when he was shot during a party last September at the Adirondack camp of Jack Clifford, dancer and husband of Evelyn Nesbit. At that time Johnson insisted that he shot himself accidentally. His wife left him in November.

Harding Gives Views on Foreign War Debt

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—President Harding is convinced, it was disclosed today at the White House, that there can be no settlement of the eleven billions of dollars of war debts to the United States within the limitations laid down by congress—payment of principal within 25 years with interest at 4 and one-quarter per cent.

The executive's view in which members of the American debt commission concur were crystallized by developments at the preliminary negotiations with the British debt commission looking to the refunding of the four billions of dollars owed by Great Britain. Whether congress will be asked to liberalize immediately by the terms of existing statutes or the American last arrangements with the debtor nations subject to final congressional approval is yet to be estimated.

Mr. Harding considers that the Belgians may reach some agreement within a week and he feels that when the American commission had decided what modifications are absolutely necessary there will be a test of what the country desires to do and what its representatives in congress will permit to be done.

While the president's views were being made known at the White House the debt situation was discussed in congress. In the senate discussion centered around the proposal of Senator Harrison, Democrat, Mississippi, that the commission be enlarged to include Democratic representation but in the house the direct issue was the liberalizing of the terms of the settlement by the debtor nations.

EVIDENCE SHOWS KLAN INVOLVED IN MANY FLOGGINGS

Captain J. K. Skipwith is Named as Head of the Klan

(By The Associated Press)

BASTROP, La., Jan. 9.—Delving into the secrets of the Morehouse parish branch of the Ku Klux Klan in an effort to fix responsibility for the kidnaping and slaying of Watt Daniel and Thomas Richards, victims of blackhooed raiders, states' attorneys today produced testimony to the effect that floggings and deportations had been carried out under the direction of the leader of the Parish Klan and that the black hoods were part of the regular use by hands of klanmen on secret night expeditions.

Captain J. K. Skipwith, recognized leader of the Klan organization in Morehouse was named by J. F. Norserworthy who disguised himself as a resigned klanman as the order giver of the Parish organization.

White hoods and robes were for ceremony—to be worn inside the lodge room and on parade—but blackhood was for raiding parties.

Norserworthy testimony revealed a klanx who he identified as a black hood with long hanging apron under the chin produced by Attorney General Cocco as the headgear worn by klanmen on raids.

The day's testimony carried the narratives for a time beyond the incidents of the actual kidnaping of the two men to expeditions on which Norserworthy said he was sent to lash and drive several men from Louisiana.

Norserworthy declared himself rated as a former "captain" in the Klan organization.

Half a dozen witnesses testified today, men who were taken prisoner or were present at the time Daniel and Richards were kidnaped.

All agreed that the kidnaping was at the hands of a black hooded mob armed with rifles, pistols and shot guns. None could identify members of the band.

PROHIB SENTENCES TOTAL 2,000 YEARS

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Sentences imposed in federal courts since July 1921 on persons convicted of charges involving violations of the prohibition laws aggregate 2,000 years in jail and more than $5,000,000 in fines, according to an official compilation, by the department of justice.

In the 18 months the records show, there were 58,862 cases reported resulting in 27,301 convictions, resulting in 27,301 convictions.

Of federal dockets in some circuits, the department declared today seems to be due for the most part to "the fact that the prohibition burden was not being shared by the state courts except in one or two states, notably Kansas and Wisconsin."

COMMITTEE WILL PUT KELLAR CASE UP TO CONGRESS

Will Report Body Has Power to Punish Representative

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Dismissal of impeachment charges brought against Attorney General Daugherty by Representative Keller, Republican, Minnesota, is recommended to the house in a resolution adopted today, 12 to 2, by the judiciary committee which held public hearings on the charges last month.

The committee approved 11 to 2, a formal report to the house holding that body had the power to punish Mr. Keller by imprisonment or otherwise for his refusal to obey a subpoena issued for him immediately after his withdrawal from the case on the third day of the hearings.

Both the resolutions and the report will be submitted to the house tomorrow by Chairman Volstead but whether there will be formal action on them appears now to be a mooted question.

Some committee members are of the opinion that house action is unnecessary, but others think the resolution and the report with regard to Mr. Keller should receive formal consideration. With respect to the refusal of Keller to appear and testify under oath as to the information on which he based his charges the report is understood to say that the committee is of the opinion that the Minnesota member was legally required to obey the subpoena and that the house possessed full power to cause him to be arrested and confined in prison until he shall consent to testify, such confinement not to extend beyond the term of this congress, next March 4, and power to deal with him otherwise to compel obedience to the summons.

Representative Sumners and Thomas voted against this report and Representative Montagu, Democrat, Virginia, voted present. The report carries no recommendation for affirmative action by the house as it was decided to leave this question solely up to the judgment of the membership.

Should the house concur in the committee's view there would be established a precedent which some members argued would be of far reaching importance. It was contended that if congressional committees were given power to summon members they could sit outside of Washington and call away enough of the membership to insure passage or defeat of any legislation which it might be desired to rush thru the house.

Announcing that he would file a minority report urging that there be further hearings on the impeachment charges Mr. Thompson charged that the impeachment proceedings against Mr. Daugherty had been converted into a prosecution of Mr. Keller. He said the constitution provided for the arrest of a member of congress during sessions of that body only for treason, felonies or misdemeanors.

THE DAY'S EVENTS IN WASHINGTON

(By The Associated Press)

The senate banking committee by a five to three vote reported the Lenroot-Anderson government aid in rural credits bill.

Senator Capper, Republican, Kansas, endorsed proposals for American aid toward settlement of European economic problems.

The senate and house reached an agreement on all provisions of the naval appropriation bill and the measure was sent to the president.

The house judiciary committee reported that the Keller impeachment charges against Attorney General Daugherty had not been substantiated.

Opposition to consideration at this session of revenue bills except emergency measures was expressed in a resolution adopted by the house ways and means committee.

Arrangement of satisfactory terms for settlement of Great Britain's war debt to the United States was declared at the White House to be impossible under the present restrictions of the debt funding law.

Senator Bursum, Republican, New Mexico, announced he would re-introduce in modified form his bill providing pensions for Mexican and Civil war veterans and their widows which recently was vetoed by President Harding.

J. C. Donnell, president of the Ohio Oil company, testifying at the senate oil investigation, declared the action of Secretary Fall in granting leases in the Teapot Dome field in Wyoming to the Sinclair interests was antagonistic to a proper conservation policy.

State department formally stated, in reply to published denials from Paris that Secretary Hughes had taken up with American Ambassador J. P. Jusserand his plan for a reparations settlement and that the latter had presented to him Premier Poincare's observations on the suggestion.

Representative Upshaw of Georgia said he would give the author of all evidence waivered in his hands of liquor drinking by government officials.

SENATORS DISCUSS AMERICAN AID IN EUROPEAN CRISIS

Johnson and Robinson Differ on Essential Points

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Proposals for American aid toward settlement of European economic problems were endorsed in the senate today by Senator Capper, Republican, Kansas, chairman of the farm bloc, who said that American farming interests require stability in Europe to afford a market for American agricultural products.

Secretary Hughes' plan for an investigating commission would "prepare the way for a world economic conference, declared Senator Capper who also declared himself in favor of Senator Borah's recent conference proposal.

"A world economic and armament limiting conference," said Senator Capper, "to be called at an early date seems to be the only practicable means to be invoked for preventing war-wrecked Europe from going on the rocks and plunging us all into economic chaos."

Senator Johnson, Republican, California, in a brief observation said that Senator Capper in opposing obligations, commitments or cancellation of the allied debt left nothing else but good advice to be offered Europe.

"That we are free to offer to-day," said Senator Johnson, "expressing approval of the limitations proposed by Senator Capper."

Senator Robinson, Democrat, Arkansas, said both Senators Capper and Johnson appeared willing to have a conference but one in which nothing could be done. He also deplored the reported policy of the administration to "ignore" the recent senate resolution declaring for withdrawal of American troops from Europe.

"The Policy of maintaining an American army on the Rhine while avowing the purpose not to interfere in threatened ruptures between European nations is incomprehensible," said Senator Robinson. "It is my belief that unpublished circumstances underlie the course in which Secretary of State Hughes is drifting. The policy pursued, if it can be defined as a policy has been anomalous in the extreme. After refusing for two years to go in we decline to come out."

BLANKS FOR ILLINOIS BONUS IN MAILS TODAY

(By The Associated Press)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 9.—Blanks for the Illinois soldier bonus are to be mailed tomorrow by the service recognition board after plans completed today do not fail. The only thing that can delay the mailing is failure of the blanks for heirs at law of deceased ex-service men to arrive at the office of the board. They are expected tomorrow and as soon as they are in the hands of the board, the blanks for the living ex-service men will go forth.

The applications are to be mailed to 102 county clerks, every post of the American Legion in Illinois, all camps of the United Spanish-American War Veterans and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The first mailing will contain 2,000 blanks. Each camp and post will receive twice the number of blanks as it has members.

The blanks were wrapped in packages this afternoon and ready to place in mails tomorrow.

It will require about $1,000 in stamps to mail the packages.

The new offices of the service recognition board were buzzing with preparations for the flood of applications expected as soon as the blanks reached the ex-service men. A great force of clerks is to be added in a few days, as soon as desks for them are placed.

Letters at the rate of 300 a day are coming to the desk of Palmer D. Edmunds, executive secretary of the board asking for information filling applications and seeking lost men.

Applications are on file from several thousand heirs of former service men. The blanks for beneficiaries can be obtained only at the office of the board and are not distributed with these for living ex-soldiers.

Mrs. Helen Higham of Chicago has been appointed Secretary to Mr. Edmunds. Mrs. Alice Volentine of Springfield is the first Gold Star Mother to enter the service of the board. She had three sons in the war, one of whom was killed. Only persons eligible for the bonus are employed.

BOOTLEGGERS PLY DEVILISH TRADE AMONG PUBLIC MEN

Representative Upshaw Makes Statement in Address

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Representative Upshaw, Democrat of Georgia, in a speech in the house today declared that "bootleggers ply their devilish trade among too many public men in Washington and that he had seen 'some of the highest officials' in Washington, not members of either branch of congress lifting the devilish bottle to their lips."

Commenting on reports that liquor imported for embassies and legations under diplomatic immunity channels, Mr. Upshaw said this problem called for "delicate but firm treatment."

He told the house he would not make public the names of senators and representatives "who do not practice the prohibition which their votes profess," but would promptly turn over to federal and local authorities all evidence relating to liquor drinking by government officials placed in his hands.

With this evidence Mr. Upshaw said he will "turn in the name of a high official (not a diplomat) who returned from abroad some time ago with more than a score of cases of foreign liquor marked 'diplomatic.'"

"Here," Mr. Upshaw continued, "is a signed letter that says, 'xxxxx a professional bootlegger told me a year ago the house office building furnished my best customers and as long as these blankety blanks keep buying I am going to keep selling.'"

The letter adds that the "official" bootlegger had been reported several times but that he paid fines "and went right back to bootlegging."

Answering his own question as to why he did not give the house the names of its "drinking" members, Mr. Upshaw said the house was not a justice court, and that congress was not a police matron.

Will Not Publish Names

Referring to his recent speech in which he brought up the subject of bootleg liquor drinking by high officials the Georgia representative said he had made no threat that he would publish the names of known offenders.

Touching on liquor shipped from abroad to embassies and legations at Washington, Mr. Upshaw declared:

"One problem that calls for delicate but firm treatment is the use and abuse of liquor shipments to some of our foreign embassies. An able man who was an attaché of our state department for more than thirty years has written me in desperate seriousness on this question."

He declares that a "polite force" full note such as our brilliant secretary of state knows so well how to write would cause a ready and universal response from all foreign legations who would really rejoice, once they saw our position to help the United States the first great nation that has launched upon the greatest moral experiment of all time, to work out here at the heart of national and international influences, that great plan for redemption of humanity, contemplated in the ratification of the Eighteenth amendment."

Mr. Upshaw took a shot at Governor Smith of New York, who he said "took an oath to defend the constitution and then in his next breath joined the traffickers of the constitution by calling on congress to allow beer and wine."

"Repeat the Eighteenth amendment!" the Georgian exclaimed. "Why you might as well talk about repealing the Ten Commandments of God because after thousands of years they are broken every day."

WILL QUESTION SMYRNA REFUGEES

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—D. D. Shepard, representative of the State Department arrived today to question survivors of the Smyrna disaster, who arrived last night on the refugee ship Ming Alexander, regarding the alleged inhuman conduct of Maynard Barnes, American vice-consul during the burning of Smyrna.

Several of the refugees were said to have declared that American citizens who sought safety under the roof of the Smyrna theater were driven by Mr. Barnes to the streets where they were killed.

SOW SEED BY AIRPLANE

Tracy, Cal., Jan. 9.—A pilot in an airplane began to sow today a 276-acre field to grain three miles west of here. The pilot kept the machine 100 feet from the ground and the released seed covered a swath fifty feet wide. A half sack was required to the acre and it was estimated the cost was $1 an acre as against 10 cents an acre when the sowing is done by force.

A THOUGHT

And now abide, fair, hope, love, these three; and the greatest of these is love.—I Corinthians 13:13.

The Bible tells what Christian graces are, but it is in the struggle of life that we are to find them.—Henry Ward Beecher.

If less publicity were given the fact that reception committees await Berdell at every port, perhaps there would be less difficulty in arresting this notorious evader of army service.

Jacksonville is a well lighted city and ordinarily a city so lighted is accounted as well policed. The members of the city police force can be commended for the excellence of their work.

However, the city council should face the question of the possibility of increasing the number of officers on night duty, especially during the winter months until employment conditions in this and other cities are normal.

F. H. Collier, writing in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat said: "If anybody fails in his come experiments, he may close the incident as the woman did who prayed that the mountain would be moved and on looking out of the window exclaimed: 'Pshaw! I just knew it would be there!'"

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM

Why Shouldn't They?

By Berton Braley

I DON'T know a thing about higher finance. But this much I'm ready to say: Since Germany's troops made a waste cart of France, it's Germany's cash that should pay. Yet out of EIGHT billions expended so far, Repairing the harm that was done, The Germans have paid for the havoc they made Just ONE!

"CAN Germany pay?" Let economists ask— I'm sure that I cannot decide. To pay is, of course, a most difficult task. But—how hard has Germany tried? She's whined and she's whimpered, she's wheedled and dodged, She's raised a sad hullabaloo, But as to that debt, well, she hasn't as yet, Come through.

HER fields are not wasted, her homes are intact, So, though I don't savvy finance, I'm free to confess I can't see for a fact, Why she should pay far less than France! Economists say that the Germans can't pay, And to prove it with figures, but I Would like to see Fritz quit his cry-baby fits And try!

money will buy 10,000 German marks. When it is remembered that before the war a dollar was equal to four marks, the financial status of Germany can be understood. One dollar is not sufficient to pay for the paper and ink used in printing 10,000 marks, yet the presses are still busy.

Governor Small, it is said, will make a re-election campaign on the basis of his hard road work. That is a pretty solid foundation, as the governor followed a wise course in this matter and secured a large mileage at a much lower cost to the state than would have been true if he had taken the action urged upon him by some of the powerful interests of the state.

Scottish Rite Masons in Chicago have been asked to join in a campaign against the drug traffic and the use of habit forming narcotics. It is said that officers in the Scottish Rite society have agreed to this helpful program.

Now if members of a few secret societies will join the government in helping to enforce the liquor laws, great progress will be made.

The house judiciary committee brought in a report exonerating Attorney General Daugherty from the impeachment charges filed by Representative Keller of Minnesota. This report was generally anticipated not because the case has been white washed but owing to the fact that Representative Keller's spectacular charges collapsed when the opportunity was given him to present any real facts.

From all the information available it is more than likely that the attacks made upon the attorney general are not occasioned by his neglect of office but rather

AHEAD OF YOU

Next time you are gloomy or discouraged, you will cheer up and have renewed hope if you study the above picture by Artist Satterfield and carry it indelibly in your memory.

This picture is a drawing copied from an oil painting done by Satterfield last summer. He calls it "The Passing Shower."

The front of the scene, closest to you, is dark and clouded, with rain falling. In the distance you see the fine weather that follows in the wake of the storm—bright sunshine, freshened air, birds venturing from cover.

Behind all this is a principle that has been apparent to all philosophers with healthy minds. The principle is this: Every storm, no matter how severe, is followed by fine weather.

When discouraged, remember that you are in a storm, with fair weather and happiness sure to follow.

Fine weather and storms follow each other in an eternal cycle of endless chain. So do night and daylight, also winter and summer. This is natural law. By the same law, joy and sorrow alternate like waves, through our lifetimes.

At the end of it all, you will realize that this contrast is necessary, to make us appreciate the things worth while, when we have them. Change is an eternal process, and its purpose is to provide contrasts which give us valuable experience, also wisdom, tolerance and appreciation.

Peacock Alley is a lane just around the corner from the Primrose Path. It leads to the crossroads of The Straight and Narrow and Easy Street; and there every woman must choose her way. It is a gorgeously staged drama of the night life of Paris and New York; a picture reflecting resplendently the bewildering glamor of great cities.

CALLS ATTENTION TO SUBWAY CONDITION

Not long since W. C. Bradish as an interested citizen called the attention of the state highway department to the dangerous condition at the subway site east of Arnold. The fact is that this action was taken because several accidents have occurred on the hard road at this point, drivers following the road without knowledge that the subway has not been constructed and that a detour is necessary.

Recently Mr. Bradish received a letter from Clifford Older, chief engineer, stating that the matter had already been called to the attention of the department and that arrangements had been made for barricades and signs that should illuminate the dangerous condition.

Mr. Older also mentioned that the Wabash railroad now has workers engaged in building the subway bridge and from the progress being made that with favorable weather conditions continuing that the work can be completed in about three weeks.

HE WON THE BET

"I was skeptical of all medicine and doctors. A friend advised me to take Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and assured me it had cured him of his stomach trouble. I didn't take any stock in it and he bet me $50 that it would be equally successful in my case. He won the bet." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

We will positively discontinue sending any shoes on approval to anyone.

However, we will gladly exchange shoes as heretofore.

In order to maintain our prices as low as we have them and to operate on the small margin of profit that we do, we must eliminate all unnecessary expense.

We have never had any charge accounts. But we have allowed shoes to be taken on approval. This approval business is often abused. Therefore, we will allow no shoes to leave our store from now on that are not paid for.

During 1923, we propose to give our customers better shoes, better service and prettier styles than ever before.

Only on a strictly cash basis and the same fair treatment to everyone can we do this.

We also wish to thank our friends and patrons for their liberal patronage during 1922.

VETERAN ATHLETE WILL TRY COMEBACK

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Abel Kiviat, former distance running star and veteran of the American Olympic team of 1922 has undertaken one of the most successful come-backs in athletic annals—an attempt which he hopes will lead to his participation again in the Olympics at Paris in 1924, after an interval of 12 years.

Kiviat retired from competition in 1915 after he had been indefinitely suspended by the American Athletic Union for asking exorbitant expenses for exhibition in a meet.

Confident that he could regain his old time form he was prevailed upon by friends last fall to seek reinstatement, which was granted by the A. A. U. at its annual convention in New York last November.

Since then Kiviat has adhered to a program of rigid training and today after practically three months of road work and indoor practice, demonstrated at an informal exhibition that he is close to the form which decades ago made him one of the greatest milers in the world.

While the 1924 Olympics are his ultimate goal, Kiviat will undertake a strenuous indoor campaign this winter and later turn his attention to outdoor work.

The Chapin Independents won the basketball game from the Elks team by a score of 24 to 19 at the David Prince gym Tuesday night. The Elks players showed better team work than in previous contests, but lost the game on fouls. Chapin played a strong game throughout.

This was the sixth successive victory for the Chapin five. Every man on the Elks team played in good form, showing considerable improvement since the last game. In the third quarter Reynolds was disqualified on a personal foul and was succeeded by Ator.

The teams: Chapin Independents—Daniels, f; E. McDaniel, f; Delp, c; W. McDaniel, g; Smith, g; score 26. Elks—Seymour, f; Dunlap, f; Cain, c; Reynolds, g; Coultas, g; substitutes, Woods, Benson, Ator; score 19.

MARK ARIE IS CHOOTING WELL

PINEHURST, N. C., Jan. 9.—Mark Arie of Champaign, Ill., world's champion trapshooter, today won the Pinehurst tournament comprising the second string of 150 targets of the mid-winter trapshooting tournament.

Arie led today's field by one pigeon with a total of 148 and climbed to a tie with W. G. Warren of Chicago in the shoot for the tournament title.

Arie's two-day record is 145-148-293 and Warren's is 146-147-293. In the sectional team contest the east is leading the west by a margin of two targets with a score of 1,436 to 1,434.

GOETTLING IS ARRAIGNED

(By The Associated Press)
CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 9.—Fred Goettling was arraigned in municipal court today and bound over to the grand jury without bail on a charge of first degree murder in connection with the slaying of Harry Keim, hardware shop owner Sunday. Goettling today re-enacted the murder for three detectives at the hardware store. A detective took the part of a dead man in re-enacting what Goettling says took place when Keim was slain.

Goettling, a pick handle in his hands to represent the axe that was used in killing Keim demonstrated the exact procedure. The detective had to jump quickly to one side to escape a blow from the bludgeon as Goettling showed the officers how he struck the first blow.

Police say today's demonstration strengthens the confession of Goettling last night that he killed Keim in an argument over the payment of a bootleg liquor bill.

FARM BUREAU NOTES

U. S. Veterans Bureau

J. E. Londe, training assistant in this bureau with headquarters at Springfield, was a caller at the Farm Bureau office Tuesday. He was interested in seeing that a disabled soldier who had received special training in the Michigan College of Agriculture got started right in poultry farming in a community close to Morgan County. A disabled soldier gets $80 per month while in training $35 additional if he has a wife and $10 per month for the first child and $7.50 for each additional child. When he returns to the farm he continues to receive this pay for one year until he gets started. In addition to this the government gives him $300 for equipment if he engages in general farming. The critical time in this rehabilitated soldier's career is when he quits receiving the salary and has to depend on the income from the industry in which he is fitted.

Farm Management School

The farm advisers in Green, Cass and Brown counties are co-operating in arranging a series of farm management meetings. Some counties are more favorably situated to receive help from the specialists and the college of agriculture than are those in the Western part of the State. By arranging a circuit, we hope to get our share of this inspirational help.

Dress Your Own Pork

After the hog carcass has chilled thoroughly for 24 hours to 48 hours, split it down the center of the back with a meat saw. Many farmers split the hog on each side of the back bone, with a cleaver or ax. This method spoils the best cut in the carcass—the loin. The head is cut off about a half inch behind the ear or at the atlas joint. This may be done before or after splitting. Lay the side skin-side down upon a table and cut off the feet just above the knee and hock. Make a square cut between the third and fourth ribs to cut off the shoulder. The layer of fat on top, called the "char plate" may be cut off and used for lard. The neck bones and ribs are then taken out. The upper part of the shoulder or "butt" may be cut off squarely just above the joint of the shoulder blades and cooked fresh as a roast or boned and used for sausage. The lower part or "picnic" may be boned for sausage or cured. The entire shoulder may be cured without division. Cut off the ham squarely about two finger-bones. Then trim it smoothly so there are no loose, thin, ragged shreds of meat on it. Also trim off the tail and flank. If the ham is very fat, trim off some of it. However, be sure to leave about one half inch of fat over the lean. Hams are usually cured. Strip off the leaf fat for lard. Cut the loin from the belly by sawing through the ribs parallel to the back bone, just below the large muscle of the back. Then remove the "fat back" from the loin with a sharp knife. The fat back is used for lard. The loin may be used for roasts or cut up into chops. It may be allowed to freeze, and then used as needed. It will keep indefinitely while frozen. The spare ribs are cut from the belly and used fresh. The belly is then trimmed so that all corners are square, all edges are straight, and all ragged meat is removed. If the carcass is a female, trim off enough meat from the lozer edge to remove the nipples. The front or brisket end and the upper part of the belly pieces are not so good as the lower flank and side portions. Hence they are often cut off and used for sausage and lard. The trimmed bellies are cured for bacon. All fat trimmings should be used for lard and all lean trimmings for sausage. Do not use any bloody trimmings.—Slector Bull, Meats, U. of I.

TAKE A TIP FROM BRITISH LABOR PARTY, M'DONALD URGES AMERICANS

BY MILTON BRONNER
NEA Service Staff Correspondent.

London, Jan. 9.—American workers may well take a lesson in political organization from their British brothers, suggests J. Ramsay MacDonald, first Laborite to head the government opposition in the House of Commons.

He is a man who has made history and is destined to make a great deal more. By reason of his new position, he is generally regarded as the most likely candidate for the premiership if the Labor Party wins Parliament within the next six or eight years.

"I do not wish," MacDonald said in his first after-election interview, "to advise the workers of the United States without their invitations to do so, but I cannot help expressing the view that their political organizations are altogether out of date and ineffective."

"They would do well to study the British Labor party and adapt its method to their conditions."

What Labor Would Do.

I asked what was the Labor program for improvement of living and working conditions of the laboring class. For reply, he referred me to the official manifesto of his party which says:

"Labor's policy is to provide work or maintenance for the unemployed by reopening trade with foreign countries, by the national organization of production, and by a large program of necessary and useful public works. Labor is resolved to change, as speedily as possible, by constructive measures the social and economic system which confers unfair privileges on the few and undeserved hardship on the many."

"Pointing out that many of his Labor colleagues said present economic conditions in Europe were due to the attempt to impose impossible reparations terms on Germany, I asked him how Labor would tackle this problem."

"The reparations problem," said he, "is one of grave concern to Europe. If the Labor Party were in power, it would settle his at once, by fixing definitely payments Germany would have to make, how she would have to make them, and the term of indebtedness."

Wants Capital Levy.

As regards his party joining with those of other nations to prevent future wars, MacDonald said: "Our party is in close contact with Socialists and Labor parties of other lands to promote common objects among the foremost of which is peace. We were officially represented, for instance, at the recent conference at the Hague."

During the campaign one of the planks of the Labor platform was a capital levy on all fortunes above 5,000 pounds, the proceeds to be used to wipe out the national debt. All the opposition parties bitterly attacked this, saying a vote for Labor was a vote for Lenin and Trotsky. Nevertheless, Labor almost doubled its representation in Parliament.

MacDonald is tall, slender, with a mop of iron-gray curly hair and dark mustache, beginning to go gray. He has a splendid speaking voice and once, by fixing definitely payments Germany would have to

HUGHES SETS AT REST ANY DOUBTS

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—A formal announcement by the statement today set at rest any doubt as to the manner in which Secretary Hughes' proposal that financial authorities be called into the reparations controversy was laid before the French government. It said that the secretary had taken the matter up directly with Ambassador Jusserot and who was understood to have transmitted it to his government. Later "presented to the secretary the observations of M. Poincare in reply."

"The views of the two governments were exchanged in this way," the statement continued, adding that a copy of Mr. Hughes' subsequent New Haven speech had been delivered formally to the French embassy.

The department's statement was prompted by press reports from Paris stating that the French foreign office had denied receipt of the American plan.

Regular Business Session Held Tuesday Evening—Report Is Made by Miss Fowler.

The Social Service League held a regular business session Tuesday evening in the league rooms in the Morrison building. Miss Anne Fowler, the superintendent, made her report for the month of December, and various matters of business were given attention.

The local league has made application for membership in the American Association for Organizing Family Social Work. Membership in this national organization will mean considerable publicity for Jacksonville, as there are only five or six other Illinois cities holding membership, including Springfield, Rockford, Freeport, Chicago and Bloomington.

The report made by Miss Fowler indicates that the league has been especially active during the month which recently closed. The summary of the month's activities appears below:

Letters received 33

PRIZE AWARDED IN ANTI T. B. SEAL SALE

Jacksonville State Hospital Was Institution Selling Most Seats in Recent Local Campaign.

The Anti T. B. Seal Sale committee is pleased to announce that the $5.00 prize this year, which was to go to the institution of the city selling the most seals, has been awarded to the State Hospital for the Insane. Mrs. E. L. Hill was chairman of the work out there and they disposed of almost $75.00 worth of seals. It is probably not much thought of, but the State Hospital is always found backing up community betterment projects.

Not only in the case of the annual seal sale but in all campaigns of every nature, the State Hospital always offers support and earnest effort. It is also interesting to note that although the workers at the State Hospital probably receive on an average less salary than the other institutions, they far exceeded them in the sale.

The committee desires to clean up the outstanding seal sale affairs and requests that all outstanding stamps be turned in or be money for them.

FRED GIBSON'S ILLNESS NOT THOUGHT SERIOUS

Fred I. Gibson, who took violently ill at his meat market on East State street Tuesday morning, appeared much improved at last reports Tuesday evening. Mr. Gibson's illness was due to a nervous collapse, caused by worry over changing the location of his meat market. He has appeared nervous and absent minded for several days, and this morning, while engaged in moving the contents of the shop, he suddenly collapsed.

Mr. Gibson was taken to Maplewood Sanitarium, where he soon became quite calm. He slept most of the afternoon and was free from temperature. His condition is not considered serious.

ELMER CULLY STILL BATTLES FOR LIFE

Lives Thin Day and Gains Slightly—Ray of Hope Seen—Bandits Will Be Caught, Local Police Say.

Elmer Cully, shot above the heart by one of two negro bandits who entered the Zahn Garage as pretended customers, was said by physicians Tuesday night to be making a remarkable fight for recovery, while police are confident that their vigorous efforts will result in the arrest of the assassins at an early date.

Renewed hope was held out for Cully Tuesday evening, because he had come thru the day with a slight improvement, and while his condition was considered by doctors as very critical, the signs were better than they had dared hope Tuesday morning. The wounded man is said to possess a hardy constitution, which may serve to bring him thru succeeding days as it brought him thru the first.

The upper left lung was torn by the bullet, and doctors are unable to understand how the main blood vessels escaped being severed.

The bleeding however threatened pulmonary edema or stoppage of the air cells and passages with blood, which if complete would be fatal. A coughing spell at about 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon removed much clotted blood, with the result that the patient's breathing was much easier afterward. The danger lay in continued bleeding and spread of the blood and clot over the lung, or if this is avoided, the possibility of pneumonia, doctors said.

Dr. E. D. Canaway was called on the case immediately upon the discovery of the wounded man. Doctors F. A. Norris and G. E. Baxter were called in shortly upon his arrival at the hospital. These three doctors have been in attendance since.

Cully himself was optimistic, and the able to do but little talking gave a description of the colored assassins to State's Attorney Carl Robinson Tuesday morning. "I hope you get them and give them what's coming to them" he is reported to have said.

Bandits Known to Police
Chief of Police Frank Kiloran stated Tuesday night that the names of the men were known as a result of the description given by Cully and of investigations among local colored residents. A man named Fred Brinkley was arrested at the home of Sue Hutchinson on West Lafayette avenue, and this man admitted having ridden with two strange negroes on a C. and A. coal drag Monday from Mexico, Mo. The two had also paid lodging at the Hutchinson home, but had fled during the night.

Suspects arrested at Roodhouse failed to answer the description given, being both over 45 and otherwise not in conformance with the descriptions. According to Cully one man was short, about 20 years old, and wore an army overcoat. The second was taller and older, and had a short mustache and two gold front teeth. Both wore overalls. They are not known in Jacksonville, having been here before and the police are confident of their arrest in the near future.

Meantime measures to scour the city for them and to watch all trains out of the city have been taken, and police in Springfield, Mexico and other cities have been put on the watch. Police and deputies in all the small towns have been notified by police or by traveling men who volunteered to spread the description of the men wherever they went.

Cully's Story
The story as told by Cully is that the two negroes bought gasoline and oil, and as he was making change at the cash register shot him without warning, and then knocked him to the floor with the revolver butt. He regained his feet and called the police by phone, but fell before finishing the message, and the police found him lying by the door.

Elmer Cully is the son of Mrs. M. E. Cully, 404 North Prairie street. The news of her son's condition was a severe nervous shock to her.

REWARD OFFERED

The city of Jacksonville hereby offers a reward of $50 for information leading to the arrest of person or persons who attacked Elmer Cully at the Zahn garage at an early hour Tuesday morning.

E. E. CRABTREE, Mayor.

PROF. RAYHILL ILL

ILLINOIS COLLEGES CLASSMATES WED

Miss Ruth E. Wilkins Is Bride of Clay R. Apple—Were in Class of 1917—To Live in Boulder, Colo.

The Boulder, Colorado, News-Herald in a recent issue tells of the marriage of Clay Apple and Miss Ruth E. Wilkins, both graduates of Illinois colleges and known to many local people. Here are the paragraphs from the Boulder paper:

A wedding of much interest in prep and University of Colorado circles occurred Wednesday, December 27, at Metropolis, Illinois, when Ruth Elizabeth Wilkins became the bride of Clay Richard Apple of Boulder, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Wilkins. The romance which led to the wedding began at Illinois college, Jacksonville, Illinois, where both were students and leaders in campus activities.

Miss Wilkins, who was a classmate of Mr. Apple, went from Illinois college to Nashville, Tenn., where she received the M. A. degree from Peabody college. She recently has been teaching in a girls' school in Virginia. In college she was a social favorite and prominent in women's activities. In Metropolis she is considered one of that Illinois city's most charming and talented young women.

Clay R. Apple was graduated from Illinois college with the class of 1917. He was one of its best athletes and captained the baseball team during his senior year. In debating in which Illinois college holds an enviable rank in the middle west, he was a member of several winning debating teams. Socially, he was a member of the Sigma Pi fraternity. Mr. Apple is a native of Illinois, his mother residing in that state at this time.

Mr. Apple came to Boulder in 1920 to teach United States history in Boulder Prep. He also entered the University of Colorado Law School where he is recognized as one of its best, most popular students. He will finish his law course in June. He is a member of Phi Delta Phi legal fraternity. He is also a member of Boulder Masonic lodge No. 45.

When the World War broke out in 1917, Mr. Apple immediately enlisted as a private in the United States Marine corps. Early in his military training with the "Devil Dogs" he qualified as an expert rifleman and was one of the crack shots at the Marines' camps in Porto Rico and Quantico, Va. He was assigned to the famous Eleventh regiment of the United States Marine corps and served with that outfit during its fifteen months of strenuous activities in France. Mr. Apple was one of the few enlisted men in the Marine corps who rose from the rank of private in the war to a commissioned officer. Because of his able, courageous qualities as a fighting man he was given a first lieutenant's commission.

In Boulder Mr. Apple is deservedly popular at Prep and among his fellow students at the university. He is keenly interested in debating, athletics and all other activities of major interest in school life. At Illinois college, which is one of the country's oldest colleges, having been founded in 1829, and is noted for its high scholarship standards, Mr. Apple won an A-1 reputation as a student.

Mr. Apple and his bride will return to Boulder some time the first part of next week. They will be at home to their friends after January 10th, at 1728 Columbine avenue in a bungalow which Mr. Apple has made ready for his wife.

Following the supper, the club adjourned to the meeting room, where the president, Albert Cranwell took charge of the business session. A committee of boys with Willard Johnson as chairman, was appointed to invite visitors to the club meetings. The pictures of the club group which were taken recently were passed around, and a large number signed up for copies of the photographs.

Following the business session, the lesson on "The Attitude Towards Work," was taught by J. S. Findley. The subject for the usual informal discussion was "The Right Kind of School Spirit." Several members took part in this feature of the program.

H. H. Vasconcellos, who is soon to take up the work as advisor and teacher for the club, was present at the meeting.

THE BIG FIRE

(BY ENSLEY MOORE)
Member Illinois State Historical SocietyThere are some points more to be referred to regardingStrawn's Opera House recently destroyed by fire.One is the musical events which took place there.
For some years Jacksonville had a Philharmonic Society composed of many of our best musicians. It was led, at the time of organization by Prof. Hermann Straucher, Director of Music in the State School for the Blind; under Dr. Joshua Rhoads, Superintendent of that institution, father of Miss Mary Rhoads, of West College Avenue. Several concerts of high merit were given in Strawn's Hall in its early years by this Society. Many entertainments far above the average were given there by outside artists.
One was in December, 1870, as recalled by the writer, byMiss Clara Louise Kellogg, one of the first American Primma Donnas. The admission was high priced for those days, but the concert was largely attended. The greatest musical honors, however, was given our city in 1871, by the appearance of the great Swedish songstress(Christine Nilsson, and the Diva was richly patronized by Jacksonville and our neighboring fellow-citizens. The "House" was of the value of $1.800, the most remunerative ever given here.One or both of the Patti's was heard in the great old hall, as recalled. These were respectively by Carlotta and Adeline.
One was here in 1863 or 1854.Some of Our Singers had triumphs there, Misses Effie and Kate B. Smith, Miss Emma King, daughter of J. O. King, Miss Annie Rawlings and Miss Kate Detrick, were of these.Among our men who sang there were Prof. A. C. Williams, Prof.
Ramsey and others.Robt. G. Ingersoll, the great orator, was another of the celebrities who thrilled our people with his eloquence in Strawn's Opera House. That means along in the Sixties, when he ran for Governor of Illinois, and Gen. Palmer got the nomination.What the Site Cost, In some items culled from the files of the "Sentinel," Mrs. J. R.
(M. T.) Bailey stated:
"July, 1858, the lot on which Strawn's Opera House stands was bought for $225 per (front) foot.
The two adjoining lots on the west of the above sold the same day for $175 per foot."The present W. T. Brown Co.

thousand before the series closes at 3:32 p. m. and arrived in Godfrey, a distance of 36.7 miles, at 4:27, which allowed for a slow track between Delhi and Godfrey.

This does not equal a run from Godfrey to Roodhouse by a special
C. & A. train Friday night, engine 651, which covered the full 40 miles in the same time, allowing for the slow track. The 650 class engines on the C. & A. are hounds for speed, differing entirely from the same class on the Burlington.
The distance from Jerseyville to Carrollton, 13.3 miles, was covered in 13 minutes, and the 9.4 miles from Carrollton to White Hall in 10 minutes. This line can take care of the speediest traffic.McAvoy Place Sold.
The McAvoy place, located near the entrance to the White Hall cemetery and opposite the chantanooga grounds, has passed into the hands of Mrs. America Sheppard and her three sons, who will occupy the premises March 1st and engage in small farming. The family comes from the High street neighborhood, southwest of White Hall. The consideration is $5,000 but there are thirty acres, according to C. F. Wenken, real estate agent. The place has been in the possession of William Danahy for several years, and Mr. Danahy has found it necessary to give it up partly at least as a result of the automobile accident last Labor day at Roodhouse that came near being fatal to him and his wife.Mrs. Leon Gates is threatened with pneumonia.

A firing squad from the American Legion post of White Hall participated in funeral services over the remains of Edward H.
Johnson, veteran of the Spanish-American war, at Patterson Saturday afternoon. The squad consisted of Sergeant Russell Ash, Lynn C. Smith, Bainbridge Smith,
Roy McFarland, Gilbert Depoister and C. A. Whiteside, with Byron Vermillion as bugler. Funeral services were conducted by Rev.
John Alexander in the Baptist church at Patterson at 2 o'clock and the burial was in Pine Tree cemetery.It was a last request of Private Johnson that he have the honor of a firing squad from White Hall at his funeral. He served in Company A, 41st U. S. Infantry, from Sept. 11, 1899, to July 3, 1901. With the above exception he had been a lifelong resident of Patterson, son of W. R. Johnson, and besides his parents is survived by a wife and one child, aged seven years, and two brothers and two sisters. His wife was formerly Miss Maude Hahn, daughter of David Hahn, and they were married about nine years ago. He had been ill for the past three years with diabetes, and the end came at 1:30 p. m. last Thursday in his home at Patterson. His age was 44 years. He was a member of the M. W. A. camp.The veterans of the Spanish war are not organized in this vicinity, and the deceased had no patriotic affiliation. He enlisted at Mounmouth when the large representation from White Hall volunteered in that conflict. He did not remain with the White Hall contingent in the Sixth Illinois however. His surviving comrades at White Hall are Albert Corrigan, Scott B. Evans, Jesse Harrison,
Mont R. Winters, James Marnon,
Joseph R. Johnson, James Moles,
Lee Wilkinson, John R. Stanton, Garfield Clark. They will see to it that the grave of their departed comrade is given a regulation military marker.PUTTING ON CAMPAIGN

FARM BUREAU NOTES

Have Clover Seed Analyzed

Anyone who sells clover seed to another person for seeding purposes, must have that seed analyzed, in conformity to the Illinois Seed Law. This applies to growers as well as dealers. This law was meant to protect the farmers of our state from impure seed and it is the duty of every good citizen to see that it is enforced. Twelve teaspoonsful sent to the State Seed Laboratory at Springfield will be analyzed free of charge. The Farm Bureau office keeps a supply of the mailing bags used for sending such samples.

Will Keep Poultry Records

To date the following have indicated their willingness to keep record of the production of farm flocks using the standard record book devised by the college of agriculture. Mrs. G. C. Whitlock, William White, Porter Bell, J. F. Bergschneider, Fred Hagan, Riley York, Roy McKinney, Grace H. Stone, Geo. W. Gardner, Nellie Crum, J. G. Russwinkle, George Deterding. We quite likely shall have no difficulty in getting two from every congressional township of 36 for the entire county when the project is thoroughly understood.

Executive Committee Proceedings

The regular meeting of the executive committee of the Morgan Co. Farm Bureau was held in the farm bureau office Saturday with the following members present: C. S. Black, President; L. A. Reed, Vice President; H. E. Kitter, Secretary-Treasurer; C. A. Rowe, T. R. Cain. The Farm Adviser was authorized to get a certified public accountant to audit the farm bureau books. The election committee consisting of H. J. Rice, A. H. Bartelheim and H. J. Joy had filed a report with results as previously published. C. A. Rowe succeeds C. R. Gibson of Franklin.

The committee on annual luncheon reported that the number of paid tickets did not meet the guarantee and the action of the President and Secretary in paying the deficit of $39.00 was approved.

It was also moved and seconded that the farm bureau stand food for $25.00 of the reward offered for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the party that stole the automobile parts from John R. Wilson. Seed dealers and Sheriff's Office had previously been notified of a similar reward offered for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the party who stole clover seed from A. D. Gibson's farm southwest of Franklin. President C. S. Black and Farm Adviser Geo. B. Kendall were appointed a permanent committee to offer rewards for depredation against farm bureau members, provided the farm bureau member makes a request to this committee. It is distinctly understood that this committee must offer the reward and not the individual farm bureau member.

The committee on the collection of dues was not present. The executive committee voted to ask Mrs. C. R. Gibson to continue as a member of that committee. The committee now consists of J. W. Arnold, George Detrick and C. R. Gibson.

The executive committee discussed the proposed program of work which has been submitted to the membership chairman and decided to approve it. The plan will carry with it the appointment of each member of the executive committee as the head of some important county committee with a corresponding member in each township. These members will be selected so as to avoid duplicating or over lapping of the work.

It was moved and seconded that the farm bureau pay the expenses of any member of the executive committee, who would attend the annual meeting of the I. A. A. at Chicago on Jan. 17, and 18. The railroads will give a fare and one-half to the meeting.

Current bills totaling $598.30 were approved and ordered paid.

There was an informal discussion of the details of a membership campaign. The farm bureau is in a fine shape financially and the executive committee is disposed to give the membership the advantage of this the first year of the new membership period. However, the matter was left to a special meeting of township and community chairmen to be called sometime in the near future.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing, vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 15c and 30c.

Clear Vision is Essential in All Occupations

In modern industrial life, the chief strain falls largely on the eyes; and in overwhelming majority of cases — as proven over and over again by investigators — the delicate mechanism of sight gives way under the pressure. The result is not only impaired vision, but the often more discomforting and serious ills that invariably go with eyestrain, such as severe headaches, pain in the eyeballs and nervous exhaustion.

Market Report

By The Associated Press

STOCK TRADING CONTINUES DULL

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Trading in today's stock market continued relatively dull under the restrain-ing influence of the unsettled foreign situation news of the actual invasion of the Ruhr by French troops causing heavy speculative selling in the late dealings, which depressed most of the active issues below last night's closing levels.

Bullish operations in special stocks had a stimulating effect on the rest of the list in the early dealings and some excellent gains were recorded particularly in the independent steel oils, gas and motors, but they were materially reduced or wiped out in the final reaction.

Large traders are still disposed to await further developments abroad before extending their commitments.

Baldwin was one of the early leaders touching 13 1/2, dropping 4 points and rallying feebly to 13 1/2 at the close, where it was off nearly 2 points on the day.

Studebaker which got up as high as 11 1/2, closed at 11 1/4 for a net loss of 1 1/2. United States steel closed at 10 1/2 for a slight fractional loss.

One of the most spectacular features of the day was the movement of Atlantic Refining, which registered an extreme gain of 21 points at 160 and a net gain of 10 at 149, its closing price. Reports of new financing which would retire bank loans of the Pierce Arrow company were reflected in an advance of nearly a point in the common and 2 1/2 in the preferred.

Other active shares to register net losses of a point or more were American Can, American Locomotive, American Tobacco, St. Paul preferred, Chesapeake & Ohio, Eastman Kodak, Fisher Body, Pan-American "A" and "B" and Bethlehem Steel "B."

Cash money opened at 4 1/2 per cent but eased off to 4 1/4 at the close. Time money is quoted at 4 1/4 to 4 3/4 per cent of all maturities.

Out of town banks are the principal takers of commercial paper, most of which is 4 1/2 per cent.

Foreign exchanges opened firm, eased off and then strengthened at the close. Demand sterling was quoted around $4.85 1/2, or nearly 20 from last night's close and French francs were virtually unchanged at 6 7/8 cents.

The librarians will index and catalog all books and magazine articles on the subject and will index and reference lists for the members of the commission. All articles in future issues of magazines will be indexed and held in readiness for the convenience of the commission.

The National Municipal Review contains an article concerning what has been done in the United States during the past five years in the way of zoning and city planning. Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Kansas, Missouri, Texas, Connecticut, Tennessee, and Rhode Island have all passed laws relating to city planning. In many cities the study of city planning has been introduced in the public schools. Johnston, Akron, Cleveland, Detroit, Omaha, and Decatur are among the cities that have made this subject a part of the school curriculum.

Educational campaigns along the lines of city planning and zoning have been conducted among the adult citizens in many cities. Notable among these cities is Chicago, the pioneer in the matter, Pittsburgh and Cleveland. The campaign is carried on by means of leaflets and other literature concerning the subject, moving pictures, etc. The different phases of city plan development that have been considered in the various development: railroad and rapid transit development and improvement; housing; civic art and the beautifying and improvement of communities.

Election of officers for the coming year will be the chief business of the meeting, but some time will be devoted to discussion of the East Morgan street lot due south of the postoffice, purchased by the association for the erection of a sale pavilion. SCHOOL JOURNAL TELLS OF NEW J. H. S. BUILDING

January Issue Has Two Page Article—Building Described in Detail.

The January issue of the American School Board Journal contains a two page article concerning the new Jacksonville high school building. The January issue is the annual building number and contains some interesting accounts and details of school building activities throughout the United States.

Two photographs of the Jacksonville high school building are given one a general view of the building and the other a detail of the front entrance. There are also detailed sketches of the floor plans of the ground, first and second floors of the building.

The accompanying article gives the general plan of the building and the details of construction, cost, etc. One of the features which is mentioned in the article is the locker home system with which the building is equipped. These lockers, which are built in the walls of the building and ventilated to the roof, provide a place in which each student may keep his books, wraps, and other personal property. This economizes in the study hall space and makes a permanent home seat for each student unnecessary.

Another paragraph of the article states that: "One of the particular features of the building is its departmentalization. Groups of rooms for subjects which are closely related are physically related by special arrangement. This makes it possible to inter-use the apparatus, lecture rooms, etc."
